

At the Waldorf Oct. 19

Five Cabinet Members At 2d Forum Session

CPYRIGHT

"New Objectives in Government" will be the theme of the second and closing session of the twenty-third annual New York Herald Tribune Forum to be held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 19, at the Waldorf-Astoria. The first session, to be held the previous evening in Hunter College Auditorium, is titled "Steps Toward Racial Integration." The over-all theme of the two sessions is "The Progress of Freedom in the United States."

The second session will begin at 8 p. m. in the Waldorf-Astoria grand ballroom and will feature discussions on the achievements of the Eisenhower administration by members of the President's Cabinet, who will be questioned by a panel of experts.

Five Cabinet Members

The Cabinet members who will be present to answer the panel's questions are Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare; George M. Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury; James P. Mitchell, Secretary of Labor; Ezra Taft Benson, Secretary of Agriculture, and Attorney General Herbert Brownell jr.

The program will also include talks by Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and by Adm. Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, on "The Atom's Promise."

State campaign issues in New York and New Jersey will be discussed by the opposing candidates of the major political parties, Sen. Irving M. Ives and Averell Harriman, Republican and Democratic-Liberal gubernatorial nominees, respectively for New York, and Clifford P. Case and Charles R. Howell, the Republican and Democratic Senatorial candidates in New Jersey.

Dulles to Open Session

Mr. Dulles will open the session at 8 p. m. and will be followed by a panel program which will feature the questioning of the Cabinet members by Mrs. Beatrice Blackmar Gould, co-editor of "The Ladies Home Journal"; Henry R. Luce, editor in chief of the magazines "Time," "Life" and "Fortune"; Murray D. Lincoln, president and director of the Co-operative League of the U. S. A.; Robert S. Byfield, economist and United Nations Representative of the New York Stock Exchange, and others, to be announced.

Adm. Strauss will be questioned on the atom's promise for peaceful uses by another group of panelists, including Walker Cislser, president of the Detroit Edison Co. and chairman of the executive committee of the Dow Chemical-Detroit Edison Atomic Power Development Project.

Music by the Collegiate Chorale will be conducted by Ralph Hunter.

The keynote address at the opening session on Monday night will be given by Gov. Dewey.